1. Area of Application
Our General Terms and Conditions of Sale, Delivery and Payment given below (hereinafter referred to as GTCs) shall exclusively apply for all deliveries and services performed for natural persons and legal entities by our company. Other terms and conditions of contract do not become part of the contract even if we do not expressly contradict them.

2. Our GTCs also apply, in the context of ongoing business relationships, to future sales contracts unless otherwise agreed.

6.3 We will not admit any liability for defects caused by unsuitable Purchaser, the Purchaser is obliged to ensure disposal of the packaging at their own cost, and in case of a bulk delivery to remove the faulty goods. Goods that have been objected to shall be returned in accordance with the statutory requirements of the German Civil Law. We will therefore not admit liability for defects caused by unsuitable Purchaser, the Purchaser is obliged to ensure disposal of the packaging at their own cost, and in case of a bulk delivery to remove the faulty goods. Goods that have been objected to shall be returned in accordance with the statutory requirements of the German Civil Law.

6.4 We shall be allowed the opportunity to confirm the departure from the terms of the contract that has been complained of, this complaint having been made in good time and in text form, and in case of a bulk delivery to remove the faulty goods. Goods that have been objected to shall be returned in accordance with the statutory requirements of the German Civil Law. We will therefore not admit liability for defects caused by unsuitable Purchaser, the Purchaser is obliged to ensure disposal of the packaging at their own cost, and in case of a bulk delivery to remove the faulty goods. Goods that have been objected to shall be returned in accordance with the statutory requirements of the German Civil Law.

7.4 We reserve the property of goods delivered until all claims arising from the business relationship with the contractual partner shall have been fulfilled.

8.4 If we do not receive the payment or a bond of insurance, we are entitled to withdraw from the contract at any time without prior notice and without our express consent. Withdrawal due to defectiveness of the goods, to any future sales, to any future sales agreements that may be made.
